DEFENSE BONDS AND STAMPS ON SALE IN NATION

President Roosevelt Calls On All Citizens To Join In New Campaign

POSTOFFICE, BANKS BUSY

Strength, Safety Depend On People's Support, Says Chief Executive

United States Defense Savings Bond and Postal Savings Stamps were placed on sale, Thursday, at the Circleville postoffice and all postoffices in the nation, with banks affiliated with the Federal Reserve System also handling the Defense Bonds.

Numerous sales had been made up to noon Thursday, postal and banking officials said.

President Roosevelt, in a national radio address opening the campaign, asked that the public sacrifice some luxuries to buy

WASHINGTON, May 1—President Roosevelt today sent each of his grandchildren $5 of the new National Defense Savings Stamps.

Three albums with twenty 25 cent minute-men stamps pasted in them were mailed to the three children of Ann Roosevelt Boettiger, four went to Elliott and James' children and the mailman will deliver one each to the homes of Franklin Jr., and John.

The President said that his National Defense bond will be made out to Mrs. Roosevelt as beneficiary.

Stamps and bonds to help finance the $38,000,000,000 defense and British aid programs.

"Sacrifice is not the word," he said. "This defense savings program is rather a privilege and an opportunity—an opportunity to share in the defense of all things we cherish against the threat that is made against them. We must fight this threat wherever it appears; and it can be found at the threshold of every home in America."

Calling for a "partnership" between the people and the government to "safeguard and to perpetuate all those precious freedoms which government guarantees," he continued:

One Great Partnership

"In this time of national peril what we all must realize is that the United States government is you and I and all the other families next door all the way across the country and back again. It is one great partnership . . ."

The chief executive stressed the strength, effectiveness and safety of the country depends on the people's support and cited that nations that were safe 10 years ago because of distance, "today have been overrun by mechanized conquerors."

The new Defense Savings Bond is similar to the familiar "Baby Bond," of which more than five billion dollars worth have been bought by more than two and a half million Americans since 1935.

Anti-War Group Fights For Debate On Convoys

Shelving Of Two Measures Hit By Sen. Nye

WASHINGTON, May 1—Declaring that the administration has failed to stifle public demand for anti-convoys legislation, congressional non-interventionists today redoubled their efforts for full debate on the issue despite the initial setback given by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

With sharp criticism of the committee's shelving of two anti-convoys measures due to develop in the senate, the non-interventionists considered three moves designed to insure debate and a record vote in the senate.

The three moves under consideration were drafted by the so-called anti-war group after they charged the Foreign Relations Committee with yielding to "White House pressure" in failing to report the anti-convoys resolutions to the senate for formal debate. The resolutions, sponsored by Sens. Tolley (R) N. H., and Nye (R) N. D., were shelved by votes of 13 to 10.

For Country's Benefit

Determined, however, that the resolutions be "debated for the benefit of the country," the non-interventionist bloc may move to discharge them from the committee, attach similar legislation to the President's bill requesting permission to purchase foreign ships taken over in U. S. harbors, or to "begin general debate" without supporting legislation.

Nye, meanwhile, charged that the committee's rejection of his request for official information on the amount of war materials to Britain being sunk by Germany "is an indication that congress now has no right to ask for information" from the government.

He referred to his request that the committee summon Secretary of the Navy Knox, Secretary of State Hull, and officials of the Office of Production Management for a report on the losses.

Nye charged that a published story to the effect that 40 percent of the war materials sent to Britain had been sent to the bottom was "a plant" by the administration in an effort to whip up support for convoys, which the non-interventionists declare will take this country into war.

FORMER CONVICT ADMITS DEATHS OF TWO IN CAR

LOUISA, Ky., May 1—Dwight O. Thorne, 32, of Pittsburg, Pa., was under arrest in Louisa today pending action by Pennsylvania authorities on the man's alleged statement that he was responsible for the dynamite killing of the two children of Dr. E. H. Rehborn, health director of Scranton, Pa.

The Rehborn children, William, 19, and Lois, 17, were killed last November 17 by a dynamite bomb in the family automobile.

According to the Louisa sheriff's office Thorne confessed the killings with the statement he "had to get this off my mind because I haven't been able to sleep for three months."

Thorne's statement, as quoted by authorities, said: "When I was in the pen at Columbus (the Ohio State Penitentiary) I met a man by the name of Bancroft. He said he was from Canton, O., and that when he worked in the coal mines in Pennsylvania this Dr. Rehborn had prevented him from getting compensation. He told me he wanted to get even and would give me $2,000 to kill him."

"I went to Scranton after I had been paroled. I found the Rehborn car and put four sticks of dynamite with caps on them inside the front door. I used a dry cell battery which I rigged up to the ignition of the car."

"Bancroft" paid him half the promised $2,000, Thorne was quoted as relating. Louisa authorities forwarded additional details to Scranton police so they could check on the authenticity of the story.

Too Much?

THE $3,000 monthly allowance being received by Douglas Fairbanks' widow, the former Lady Sylvia Ashley (above), becomes the center of a court controversy in Los Angeles as Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and other heirs of the late actor's estate filed objections stating that her allowance was exorbitant.

SOPHOMORE AT CORNELL KILLS SELF WITH GUN

ITHACA, N. Y., May 1—Missing since last Friday night, Willis R. Slaughter Jr., of Washington, D. C., a sophomore at Cornell University, was found dead today in a little-used room of a fraternity house with a bullet in his head and a 45 calibre revolver beside him.

Two members of Delta Phi found the body. Doctors said that Slaughter had been dead several days, shot through the mouth.

The gun, near which a note addressed to fraternity brothers, and a prayerbook were found, was owned by Thomas H. Danforth, Cornell student and Buffalo resident, who had no permit for it. He was arrested charged with illegal possession of firearms.

Slaughter was the son of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. W. R. Slaughter. His sister, Jean, is also a Cornell student.

Eight Youths Arrested For Chick Theft Series

Eight youths are being held by sheriff's officers Thursday and others are being sought in connection with a series of chicken thefts which began early this spring and has continued for the last three months.

The youths, none of them over 20 years of age, confessed before sheriff's officers, Prosecutor George Gerhardt and Probation Officer Festus Walters Wednesday night, stealing nearly 200 chickens which they sold to Robtown, Ashville, Circleville and other poultry dealers throughout the county, dividing the money they received from the sales.

Held at county jail following questioning were Harry Clifton, 18, Circleville Route 3; Robert Timmons, 20, Circleville Route 3; Wallace Dean, 17, Orient Route 1; Elwin Beavers, 16, Orient Route 2; Robert Lee McKinley, 18, Orient Route 1; George Mowery, 17, Circleville Route 3; William Stanford Carpenter, 15, Circleville Route 2,

BOMBER BEING FERRIED TO BRITAIN HELPS SAVE SURVIVORS FROM SHIP

LONDON, May 1—A new type of rescue service at sea was revealed by the British admiralty today.

F. D. R. CALLS UP SHIPS TO HELP SUPPLY BRITAIN

Maritime Commission Goes Into Action To Gather Two Million Tons

225 VESSELS REQUIRED

President Says Materials Lying At Docks; Urges Construction Speed

WASHINGTON, May 1 — The Maritime Commission today rushed plans to carry out President Roosevelt's order for at least 2-000,000 additional tons of American merchant shipping to help keep the life-lines of aid open to embattled Great Britain.

In a formal move, the President directed Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the commission, to coordinate the vast pool of more than one-fourth of the nation's merchant fleet, declaring that "we must supply those ships and at once."

At Mr. Roosevelt's request to place the crucial task in the hands of one director, Land named H. Harris Robson, of New York, head of the commission's emergency shipping division to secure the tonnage, which maritime officials said would probably be composed of about 225 vessels.

The order, made in a letter to Land, directed reallocation of the merchant fleet to make "every cargo directly or indirectly useful to our defense efforts and the winning by the democracies of the battle now being waged in the Atlantic."

At the same time, the President called for speed in building 412 emergency cargo ships and providing the shipping pool, declaring that "our merchant fleet must be expanded . . . more than we had planned so that ships and more ships will be available to carry the food and the munitions of war to the democracies of the world."

Materials Being Delayed

The chief executive told Land that the order "will cause not only great inconvenience but the loss of trade and sacrifice by the consuming public" but added that "vital war materials are piling up at the ports or delayed at the factories."

The President said the program, construed as a successful climax to the mission in Washington of Sir Arthur Salter, British shipping authority, falls "naturally" into two parts, which he explained as follows:

ILLINOIS SOLONS ASK MITCHELL'S NAME CLEARED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 1 — The Illinois legislature today petitioned congress to "clear the name" of the late Brig. Gen. William L. Mitchell, former air chief who was court martialled in 1926 for accusing his superiors of negligence in failing to develop the nation's fighting air force.

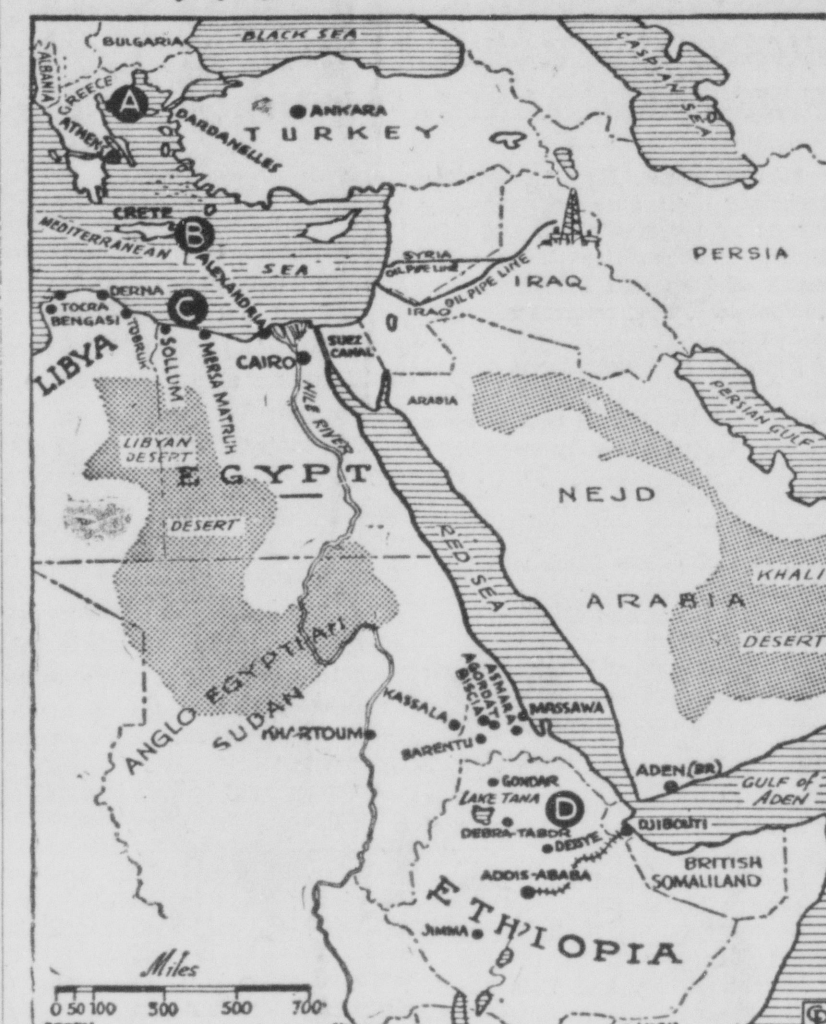

Adopted by the lower house and concurred in unanimously by the senate, the Mitchell resolution was sponsored by Rep. Nick Keller of Waukegan, who asserted the Mitchell case "directly parallels" that of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. Lindbergh resigned as colonel in the Army Air Corps Reserve this week because of remarks made by President Roosevelt regarding his prediction Great Britain cannot win the war.

After reviewing the facts of Mitchell's court martial, the approved resolution put the Illinois assembly on record with a petition to congress that the national body "take such official action as may be necessary to clear the name of this soldier and patriot, to the end that he who stood his ground, though persecuted, may be completely and forever cleared . . ."

Empire Soldiers Speed To Oil Area; Axis Troops Menace Tobruk Defenses

With large-scale fighting in the Balkans ended, the center of the active war theatre again has shifted to the Middle East, where Axis forces have penetrated Egypt to capture Sollum, shown (C) in the above Central Press map. German land and naval forces have co-operated to capture the Greek islands of Samothrace, Lemnos and Thasos (A) and are expected to attempt an attack upon Crete (B) in an effort to wrest the new seat of the Greek government from British and Greek hands. In Ethiopia, capture of Dessie (D), one of the last Italian strongholds, by British troops was reported. There also were reports that "Free French" forces are ready to occupy French Somaliland and its port of Djibuti, eastern terminus of the railroad from Addis Ababa, although the Vichy government has said the French garrison there will resist any such attempt.

Seizure Of Four Nazis Causes Other Germans To Change Sailing Plan

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1 — Sailing of 15 German nationals on a Japanese liner tomorrow for their homeland by way of Tokyo was disrupted today following seizure of four Nazi aviators who attempted to run the British blockade.

Cancellations were reported to NYK officials from the uneasy Germans who are awaiting clarification of the incident in mid-Pacific where the Canadian cruiser Prince Robert intercepted the American liner President Garfield 400 miles off Honolulu.

British consular attaches in San Francisco refused to disclose whether they tipped off Canadian authorities last Friday after Ewald Flesch, Werner Neumar, Hans Sandkamm and Guenther Katske, former aviators on a German air line in South America, gambled on return to their home and duty with the Luftwaffe.

"They were not in the same classification as German invalids and persons of non-military age who previously have been given a safe passage guarantee," a British spokesman said. "We were not consulted on safe passage guarantees in the aviators' case."

The liner was halted Tuesday, Capt. John E. Murphy radioed the line's San Francisco office. Canadian navy men boarded her, examined papers and removed the four Germans who will be taken to a concentration camp.

JACKSON TOWNSHIP BOYS AND GIRLS ARE HEALTHY

As a part of Jackson Township school's health program, Health Commissioner A. D. Blackburn and Nurse Margaret Hunsicker, Thursday, announced they had completed examination of all pupils in the first eight grades of the school.

No outstanding defects were found among 114 youngsters examined, Dr. Blackburn said. The health commissioner reported general health conditions around the school as being good. He praised the cafeteria recently established at the school as one of the features which would contribute to healthier pupils.

School cafeterias are operating in all but two of the county schools.

JACKSON TOWNSHIP BOYS AND GIRLS ARE HEALTHY

As a part of Jackson Township school's health program, Health Commissioner A. D. Blackburn and Nurse Margaret Hunsicker, Thursday, announced they had completed examination of all pupils in the first eight grades of the school.

No outstanding defects were found among 114 youngsters examined, Dr. Blackburn said. The health commissioner reported general health conditions around the school as being good. He praised the cafeteria recently established at the school as one of the features which would contribute to healthier pupils.

School cafeterias are operating in all but two of the county schools.

War in the eastern Mediterranean intensified today as Britain announced landing of additional troops in Iraq while axis forces penetrated the outer defenses of Tobruk in Libya and advanced eastward from Sollum in Egypt.

New British night raids on Germany and official claims that 80 percent of the British force in Greece had been withdrawn safely from Greece coincided with events of major importance to American defense in Washington.

Britain announced that, over objections of the new Iraq government, a second large British contingent was landed in the oil-rich kingdom and was proceeding to Basra.

Penetration of the defenses of beleaguered Tobruk at the end of more than a fortnight's skirmishing came as the result of powerful axis air blows on the Libyan port, accompanied by infantry thrusts. Britain insisted, however, that the garrison in Tobruk—last British foothold in Libya—could be removed by sea.

Encroachers Warned

May day was observed in Russia by mighty military displays which followed Soviet charges that German troops have landed in Finland. In order of the day to the Red Army, Defense Commissar Timoshenko said: "We stand ready to offer annihilating rebuff to any attempted encroachment of our soil by imperialists."

Pope Pius in Vatican City took the occasion to renew his request for peace prayers during May, the month of Mary.

The Pope said: "Ceaseless prayer for Divine mercy is needed until concord returns to peoples and peaceful tranquility returns to the world."

In a series of swift moves President Roosevelt spurred his campaign to "perpetuate democracy" and help Britain defeat the axis powers "in this time of peril."

ANNULMENT ACTION HITS CIRCLEVILLE MARRIAGE

A marriage ceremony performed in Circleville for a Columbus couple April 9 was the basis Thursday of a Franklin County domestic relations court suit. Annulment of the marriage of Charles E. Eaton and Bertha C. Eaton, 74 South Mill Street, Columbus, is asked in the petition filed by Mrs. Daisy V. Hayman, Columbus, who was appointed April 21 as guardian for her father.

The suit alleges that Eaton is incompetent and at the time of the marriage did not have the mental capacity to make the contract.

WASHINGTON, May 1 — Rep. Martin L. Sweeney (D-Cleveland), said today that a "number" of Congressmen who voted for the Lease-Lend bill have "changed their minds" because they now feel it was a step toward convoys and, eventually, war.

"Personally, I have been consistent in my opposition to the lend-lease policy or any action that might carry this country into war," Sweeney said. "Recently a number of my colleagues who supported all-out aid to Great Britain have told me that if the question of convoys had come up at the time they would have voted against it."

Sweeney said he was in favor of all expenditures for defense of the Western Hemisphere. He added, however, he would never sanction conveying ships to Britain.

The Ohioan said that recently he had noticed advertisements in eastern papers in which merchants claimed they had on hand the "largest and most comprehensive collection of fine British clothes and furnishings in our long history, thanks to the Royal Navy."

"In the light of the convoy question, which is a serious one, I firmly believe the American public do not want to use our boats to convey munitions through combat zones," Sweeney said. "If the British navy can convey commerce to these shores and put out the sign 'business as usual' it ought to be compelled to utilize that navy to protect its own shipments to England instead of demanding the use of our Navy for such purposes."

DR. ARLITT

Problems of youth in the modern scheme of civilization, and the relation of these problems to Parent-Teacher's Associations everywhere, will be the subject of four dramatized broadcasts entitled "Looking Ahead" to be heard over WLW, weekly starting Sunday, May 11.

The program will be heard from 1:30 to 2:00 p. m. It will be presented by the WLW public service programs department in cooperation with the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers and will feature Dr. Ada Hart Arlitt, noted child psychologist, of the University of Cincinnati.

UNCLE EZRA

Pat "Uncle Ezra" Barrett will conduct a whirlwind campaign among the members of the fair sex in the mythical town of Rose-dale who are eager to land jobs as army hostesses when Station E-Z-R-A goes on the air Saturday, 9 p. m. Miss Fanny Pettingill (Fran Allison) and Miss Clarissa Crabtree (Nora Cuneen) will head the squad of not-so-young candidates. The musical program will feature the "Sons of Pioneers," cowboy singers and instrumentalists.

BLONDIE CONTEST

Dagwood, the proud father, in the midst of pinioning his friends to look at his new baby's pictures, is reminded of the baby contest being run by the local paper. Dagwood enters his baby's pictures, as does his friend, Mr. Fuddle. Imagine Blondie's surprise when she picks up the newspaper at a later date and discovers her baby has won the contest, but the name under the picture is Alvin C. Fuddle. Dagwood has to do some tall explaining.

RADIO BRIEFS

Gabriel Heatter has missed only one broadcast during his four years on "We, the People" and that happened when he lost his voice because of a severe cold.

Dorothy Kilgallen doesn't waste the three intervening hours between her first and repeat broadcasts each Saturday. She makes a tour of Shubert Alley gathering notes for her Broadway column.

Recently named best actress in radio, Helen Hayes hasn't forgotten her struggles. Her most prized possession is a picture of a theatre marquee showing the first time her name appeared in lights—when she was starred in "Bab."

The Princeton students who were saluted by Bob Hawk with an extra half-hour of "Take It Or Leave It" on Sunday over their own radio station, WPRU, enjoyed the quiz so much that they've put in bids for studio tickets to watch the show when it returns to New York—in June!

Amendment Adding Million

Compromise Is Reached In Measure To Aid Labor
In State

COLUMBUS, May 1—A threatened Republican revolt in the Senate, which might have cost the majority party control of the chamber during the last days of the 94th General Assembly, apparently has been averted today when administration leaders sanctioned the passage of:

The $352,345,099 general appropriation bill, containing an amendment adding $1,000,000 to the building fund for state universities.

A compromise bill amending the unemployment compensation law to give labor increased benefits of $7,000,000 a year and to reduce payroll taxes by approximately $10,000,000 annually.

The Nickels Hughes bill amending Ohio mining laws to provide rigid safety regulations to prevent future disasters.

The decision to permit passage of the big appropriations bill when it comes up for a vote today, including the amendment by Sen. Grant P. Ward (R-Columbus), which would deplete the state emergency fund to make the million-dollar increase for university buildings, was admittedly little more than a gesture.

Bolt Promised
Senate Republicans, in caucus last night, reached the decision when it appeared certain that a tie vote would result if any attempt were made to block Ward's amendment. Ward had served notice he would bolt his party and join the 17 Democrats in the upper chamber if his colleagues refused to support the building item, leaving the partisan forces divided 18 to 18.

The Senate Republicans adopted the strategy of supporting the bill as it came from the Senate finance committee, secure in the knowledge that the strong Republican majority in the House will refuse to concur in its passage so long as it contains the Ward amendment, which has aroused the ire of Governor Bricker.

The bill, they reason, then will be thrown into a conference committee, where the objectionable amendment can be killed or modified in line with the administration's wishes. Before agreeing on this plan of action, the Republicans had scurried to consult parliamentary authorities in an effort to determine whether, in case of a tie vote, Lieut. Gov. Paul M. Herbert could cast the deciding ballot.

Although some authorities hold that the lieutenant governor, as president of the Senate, is actually a member of the Senate elected at large, best opinion was that he could not legally vote on the measure. Two sections of the Ohio constitution are in conflict on this point.

Bricker Busy
Governor Bricker, meanwhile, was active in lining up opposition to the adoption of Ward's amendment. Determined that the university building fund shall not be increased above the $2,200,000 figure he originally approved in the budget, the executive yesterday summoned President Howard L. Bevis of Ohio State University, and officials of four other state universities, and served notice he would be compelled to veto the building program altogether if the amendment appears in the bill as finally passed by the Legislature.

The university presidents, whose wishes Ward had sought to fulfill by the amendment, went into conference after their meeting with the governor, but issued no statement. The administration's opposition to the transfer of money from the emergency fund to the building program is based on the stand that it would void plans for extending emergency relief to more than 30 Ohio counties which will find themselves practically broke before the end of the biennium.

The second major concession made to a Senate Republican whose stand had threatened to postpone the scheduled adjournment of the Legislature early this month, came when the Senate labor committee received instructions to release the compromise unemployment compensation bill.

This represented a victory for Sen. Horace S. Keiser (R-Springfield), labor's spokesman on the committee, who had opposed original drafts of the bill on the grounds that the bulk of the benefits proposed would be awarded to the state's 57,000 employees, with workers receiving no material gains. It is recommended out for passage by the committee, the compromise measure, scheduled

Waiting Period Cut
Increased benefits to the unemployed of approximately $7,000,000 a year through increasing maximum weekly benefits from $15 to $16, establishing a $5 minimum, cutting the waiting period from three to two weeks, and computing the average weekly wage on the basis of the worker's highest quarterly earnings.

PETTENGILL

"The Gentleman from Indiana"

IS THE WAR A RACKET?

This nation will unite for defense. Behind the moats of the Atlantic and Pacific it will defy the world. There is no division with respect to making America unconquerable and unafraid.

A large minority opposes our policy beyond those oceans. It objects to sticking pins in every tiger in the world. It considers fantastic the notion that we have a duty to shed our blood and waste our treasure and standards of living in bringing or forcing "the four freedoms" upon every square mile of the earth's surface. Nevertheless, within the declared policy of the lease-lend bill the minority yields.

Beyond those limits no one is obliged to go unless Congress speaks again. No convoys. No encouragement to more little nations to enter the war, e. g. Yugoslavia. No second A.E.F. No violation of neutrality legislation forbidding American ships in hostile waters.

It is a curious thing that the millions who insist that Mr. Roosevelt and Congress perform their promises and keep their pledges are the recipients of Secretary Ickes' spleen, whereas those who demand that Mr. Roosevelt and Congress break their promises are the super-patriots of our time. It is getting to be a crime these days to be straightforward and honest. And to believe in campaign oratory is to be a sap.

Thus we are undermining at home the democratic processes which constitute government by consent of the governed. Consent to what? Consent to promises; an agreement between the people and their officials.

Behind all these sly and midnight maneuverings to edge us into a shooting war there is something else. Is the war being used, with a gleeful rubbing of hands, to undermine our free enterprise system, and change our form of government from one of limited to unlimited powers? In short, are we fighting fascism to establish socialism?

Behind the banner of "national defense" are we in fact marching to production-for-use, which is a perfunctory phrase for communism? Are we, the rank and file American, actually marching in the fifth column without knowing it?

There are straws in the wind that this is the case. There is the appointment of Mr. Winant, Ambassador to Britain, and Benjamin V. Cohen, Assistant Ambassador, There is Harold J. Laski of the University of London, intimate adviser of Justice Frankfurter of the Supreme Court, Laski, a pink professor, has a new book in which he exalts the Presidency and holds up Congress as a dodo. This has been made book-of-the-month reading. The professor says, "the purpose of this war is the revolution to which British success will give rise!" H. G. Wells says ditto.

Harry Hopkins, one time voting Socialist, has been placed on a new high mountain. More T.V.A.s and St. Lawrence Canals are in the wind.

Bills are pending to federalize public schools. Paul McNutt's departments is to handle athletics and recreation. Mrs. Roosevelt is for universal youth service under federal control, girls as well as boys. In Germany these camps are called Hitlerjugend or Bund Deutscher Madel; in Italy, Sons of the Wolf or Daughters of the Wolf. I forget the Russian name. But depend on it the American label will not be Sons of the Wolf. It will be decorated with patriotic colors and powdered with a sweet perfume.

O patriotism, what plans are being incubated in thy name! National defense, certainly; for that all should tighten their belts. And if we are to have a united nation there must be universality of sacrifice.

But people are now asking if the only group in this country to be called upon for sacrifice are the hardworking, thrifty folks who have saved something for a rainy day.

Apparently under government blessing wage scales, already at record peaks, are to be pushed still higher. As that is done, prices, but not wages or taxes, are to be frozen. This puts the stockholder in the squeeze.

To illustrate. The steel companies, under threat of strike, raised basic wages 16 percent in the North and 22 percent in the South. Ordinarily that would be followed by a price increase. But within 48 hours Mr. Leon Henderson forbids prices down and pushes wages and taxes up. The wage increase comes to $108,000,000. Yet in only two years in the past ten has the common stockholder of

U. S. Steel had a penny of return on his investment.

What is behind all this? Not the cost of living. In February average wage earnings in manufacturing were 29 percent higher than in the peak year of 1929, and cost of living was 24 percent less. As there is no economic justification for the government's tolerance, if not actual encouragement of strikes to force wages further up, the question remains whether the war is not being used as a racket to liquidate private investment and nationalize American business.

STRIKE CONTINUING FOR 22 DAYS COMES TO END

COLUMBUS, May 1 — The 22-day-old strike at the Capital City Products Co., food manufacturers, was settled when the employees voted, 41 to 15, to accept a flat 7 1/2 cents an hour pay raise and return to work.

The AFL Unionists also won a week's vacation with pay, but were refused a closed shop agreement. The new contract, affecting 138 workers and which represents a compromise between the union council and the company, is to run for one year.

A large minority opposes our policy beyond those oceans. It objects to sticking pins in every tiger in the world. It considers fantastic the notion that we have a duty to shed our blood and waste our treasure and standards of living in bringing or forcing "the four freedoms" upon every square mile of the earth's surface. Nevertheless, within the declared policy of the lease-lend bill the minority yields.

Beyond those limits no one is obliged to go unless Congress speaks again. No convoys. No encouragement to more little nations to enter the war, e. g. Yugoslavia. No second A.E.F. No violation of neutrality legislation forbidding American ships in hostile waters.

It is a curious thing that the millions who insist that Mr. Roosevelt and Congress perform their promises and keep their pledges are the recipients of Secretary Ickes' spleen, whereas those who demand that Mr. Roosevelt and Congress break their promises are the super-patriots of our time. It is getting to be a crime these days to be straightforward and honest. And to believe in campaign oratory is to be a sap.

Thus we are undermining at home the democratic processes which constitute government by consent of the governed. Consent to what? Consent to promises; an agreement between the people and their officials.

Behind all these sly and midnight maneuverings to edge us into a shooting war there is something else. Is the war being used, with a gleeful rubbing of hands, to undermine our free enterprise system, and change our form of government from one of limited to unlimited powers? In short, are we fighting fascism to establish socialism?

Behind the banner of "national defense" are we in fact marching to production-for-use, which is a perverted phrase for communism? Are we, the rank and file American, actually marching in the fifth column without knowing it?

There are straws in the wind that this is the case. There is the appointment of Mr. Winant, Ambassador to Britain, and Benjamin V. Cohen, Assistant Ambassador. There is Harold J. Laski of the University of London, intimate adviser of Justice Frankfurter of the Supreme Court. Laski, a pink professor, has a new book in which he exalts the Presidency and holds up Congress as a dodo. This has been made book-of-the-month reading. The professor says, "the purpose of this war is the revolution to which British success will give rise!" H. G. Wells says ditto.

Harry Hopkins, one time voting Socialist, has been placed on a new high mountain. More T.V.A.s and St. Lawrence Canals are in the wind.

Bills are pending to federalize public schools. Paul McNutt's departments is to handle athletics and recreation. Mrs. Roosevelt is for universal youth service under federal control, girls as well as boys. In Germany these camps are called Hitlerjugend or Bund Deutscher Madel. In Italy, Sons of the Wolf or Daughters of the Wolf. I forget the Russian name. But depend on it the American label will not be Sons of the Wolf. It will be decorated with patriotic colors and powdered with a sweet perfume.

O patriotism, what plans are being incubated in thy name! National defense, certainly; for that all should tighten their belts. And if we are to have a united nation there must be universality of sacrifice.

But people are now asking if the only group in this country to be called upon for sacrifice are the hardworking, thrifty folks who have saved something for a rainy day.

Apparently under government blessing wage scales, already at record peaks, are to be pushed still higher. As that is done, prices, but not wages or taxes, are to be frozen. This puts the stockholder in the squeeze.

To illustrate. The steel companies, under threat of strike, raised basic wages 16 percent in the North and 22 percent in the South. Ordinarily that would be followed by a price increase. But within 48 hours Mr. Leon Henderson forbids an increase. The government keeps prices down and pushes wages and taxes up. The wage increase comes to $108,000,000. Yet in only two years in the past ten has the common stockholder of

U. S. Steel had a penny of return on his investment.

What is behind all this? Not the cost of living. In February average wage earnings in manufacturing were 29 percent higher than in the peak year of 1929, and cost of living was 24 percent less. As there is no economic justification for the government's tolerance, if not actual encouragement of strikes to force wages further up, the question remains whether the war is not being used as a racket to liquidate private investment and nationalize American business.

STRIKE CONTINUING FOR 22 DAYS COMES TO END

COLUMBUS, May 1 — The 22-day-old strike at the Capital City Products Co., food manufacturers, was settled when the employees voted, 41 to 15, to accept a flat 7 1/2 cents an hour pay raise and return to work.

The AFL Unionists also won a week's vacation with pay, but were refused a closed shop agreement. The new contract, affecting 138 workers and which represents a compromise between the union council and the company, is to run for one year.

EX-C.I.O. CHIEF HITS KNUDSEN AND POLICIES

Lewis Says Leader Of OPM Should Retire In Best Interest Of Defense

BOTTLENECKS CHARGED

Bethlehem Getting Major Orders, Others Without, Declares Speaker

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 1—Removal of William S. Knudsen as chief of the Office of Production Management in the interest of defense speedup was recommended today by John L. Lewis, head of the powerful United Mine Workers.

Lewis called the Detroit industrialist a foe of labor, blamed him in part for the production bottleneck and urged that he be curbed or removed from office.

"The defense program is not as perfect as it might be," said the union leader. "Selfish interests have been able to make a profit out of the nation's distress."

Addressing a testimonial dinner tendered Philip Murray, president of C. I. O., Lewis accused Knudsen of "doing his country a dis-service" by maligning labor, and recommended a larger role for labor in government.

"Nearly 45 percent of all National Defense money has been awarded in contracts to a half-dozen groups by business men who are unchecked by labor representation in the different councils of the government," asserted the former C. I. O. leader.

Labor Not Bottleneck

"There are 30,000 plants, ready and able to handle defense work, which failed to get any government contracts. A bottleneck in the program exists and men are saying that labor is the bottleneck. But that is not true."

"The concentration of contracts with too few corporations is the bottleneck. Bethlehem Steel alone has a backlog of three and one-half years of defense orders, while countless idle plant owners are praying for a chance to participate in the program."

"This war, if there is to be a war, can't be won alone by the government or by labor's leaders but must have the laboring man's help and Mr. Knudsen, now burning up his energy on the platform, is doing his country a disservice and should be restrained or removed."

"Mr. Knudsen is one of the men responsible for these acts. He is saying that labor is responsible for the lack of production when the contrary is true. We say to him that America will never have an adequate defense so long as men of that character try to malign labor which must be counted on to protect America in the future."

Murray was guest of the Pennsylvania Industrial Union Council, composed of C. I. O. unions, which earlier adopted a resolution supporting Harry Bridges, west coast maritime union leader, in his fight against deportation.

DARBY TOWNSHIP SENIOR PLAY TO BE HELD MAY 9

The Darby Township senior class play will be presented Friday, May 9, at 8:15 under the direction of Miss Ruth DeMuth. Tickets have been placed on sale.

The play, "The Whole Town's Talking," includes in the cast Ralph Delay in the role of Chester Binney, about whom the whole town talks; Verlin Hartman, Martha White, Martha Downs, Fannie Hicks, Bennie Conley, Ralph Nance, Helen Conley, Eleanor Countryman, Janice Chaffin, Evelyn Stinchcomb, Essie Phillips, Zona Nance, Georgia Spangler, Leland Poulson, Betty Jane Wilkey, Mary Branson, Ruth Mouser, Lucille Johnson and Annalee Wardell.

TAX RECEIPTS GO UP

COLUMBUS, May 1—Continuing to soar over receipts of last year, sales tax collections for the week ended April 19 totaled $1,124,317, or more than $200,000 over the $816,303 collected in the corresponding period of 1940. To date this year, collections total $15,826,669, as against $13,186,924 last year.

LYMAN ROBERTS ESTATE

The estate of Lyman C. Roberts of Amanda is estimated to be worth $25,000, including $33,000 of personal property.

Beautiful Faces, Slim Figures Mark Today's Golden-Voiced Opera Stars

Today's grand opera stars have become the epitome of charm, beauty, youth and grace.

NEW YORK, May 1—At long last, grand opera impresarios have conceded that a prima donna needn't necessarily be plump, portly or "Seven Dwarfish" in appearance in order to possess a gifted voice.

Consequently, when new aspirants are auditioned now, and with talents being fairly equal, the one with beauty, grace and a streamlined figure is apt to triumph over her less fortunate sister.

Times certainly have changed. Remember when you saved up your pin money for weeks and then treated yourself to a $7.70 front-row seat at the Opera House? How you were thrilled by the diva's voice—and disappointed at her appearance? Remember? And remember how you apologized to your friends by saying, "Mme. So-and-So certainly has a wonderful voice, but I'd rather hear her records than see her in person?"

Today all is changed. An opera star has become the epitome of charm, beauty, youth and grace. She must have a voice, true; but more—she is inclined to be streamlined in the modern manner.

Opera Has Beauties

Take vivacious Grace Moore of the golden tresses, for example, or petite Lily Pons. Take glamorous Gladys Swarthout. Take pretty Suzanne Sten, or beautiful Jarmila Novotna, newest stars of the Chicago Opera company; or Eleanor Steber, newest sensation of the Metropolitan opera. Take any of the opera stars of 1940, and what do you find?

We find they all have faces and figures that grace the gilded circle. They also have beauty, a beauty that cannot be surpassed even by the stars of cinema land. Indeed, an opera star today is usually a movie star, for they are besieged by Hollywood offers.

How do these charming young ladies maintain their figures? How do they keep so refreshingly beautiful?

The answers are many. They range from dieting, stretching exercises, golf and tennis to riding an Alabama walking horse. Lamentably, Miss Moore confesses that she can smell a candy shop at least two blocks away. Ofttimes, she concludes, life isn't worth living if one can't indulge in the luxury of a five-cent candy bar, so she goes on a sweets spree. Ten added pounds to her 120 make her look hefty. With gestures she points out that "It all goes in the wrong places."

Fat Doesn't Fit

"And," she adds, "how can one play the part of the sickly and dying 'Mimi' when one feels as though there's a bag of bricks hanging from all over you?"

So a diet becomes necessary.

O.K....

the pause that refreshes

and it's skimmed milk and baked potatoes . . . for two days each week until the infamous poundage disappears.

Miss Moore is fond of outdoor sports; she is an expert golfer and is a member of the hole-in-one club. Tennis is another of her favorite pastimes. Moreover, she rides expertly and swims well.

Incidentally, another newcomer in this category is pretty and modish 26-year-old Rose Stevens. Miss Stevens claims she doesn't indulge in winter sports and while she likes to swim and play tennis, she finds time for neither. Her exercise, she said, comes from tossing around in taxicabs en route from her apartment to the Chicago Opera company.

Glamorous Gladys Swarthout gives all the credit for her svelte, lithe figure to her singer-husband and manager, Frank Chapman.

Chapman, a noted baritone in his own right, was a football star in college. He now applies all the technique that makes for moulding a sturdy football hero in training his beautiful health.

"Look at her," he proudly boasts. "Isn't she the picture of health?"

Likes Stars

Miss Swarthout believes in plenty of outdoor exercise and plenty of wholesome foods. Big juicy steaks are her favorite.

However, she warns, "Healthy foods will give your body the needed energy, but be sure and burn it up with exercise and activity. Keep on the go. Enjoy your sports; don't just apply a dull routine of motion. Put zest and vigor into them."

She spends an hour daily fencing with her husband. This gives her agility and grace. She enjoys swimming, horseback riding and walking, but briskly, taking deep breaths.

Indeed, she needs the energy and vitality of a youthful athlete. Besides a busy operatic season she gives as many as 50 concerts during intervals between her opera, radio and picture work.

Now that's quite a program for a little five-foot three and one-half-inch girl, who weighs 119 at the moment, two pounds less than her weight a year ago.

The newest star on the American operatic horizon is Miss Novotna, who is appearing this season both with the Metropolitan and with the Chicago Opera companies.

A Czechoslovakian operatic star, considered one of the most pleased as she placed two fingers under her dimpled chin and wrinkled her brow. "Really, I can't recall ever singing with any one smaller than I."

"Do you exercise or diet to keep your figure?"

She thought for a moment, her eyes widened as she answered, happily. "Yes and no."

Exercises To Add

Panouche, her favorite sky terrier had jumped to her side and she patted him lightly, then she continued, "I exercise and diet to put on weight. I need every ounce of energy I have and the thought of losing one single pound gives me 'the creeps,' as you would say in English."

Miss Pons explained that a few years back she only weighed 100 pounds. The extra four pounds she has succeeded in adding to her weight have given her a veritable mine of energy.

Green vegetables, fresh fruits and salads furnish the major part of her menu. She eats "regularly and with gusto." Her twinkling eyes directed emphasis to the "gusto."

She does no strenuous exercising, but she enjoys walking.

"She went, 'Nay, nay' on wines and cocktails and 'No, no,' on smoking, as it irritates her throat. Living in the midst of caviar tid-bits and champagne has made her 'healthy, wealthy and wise,' she affirms."

PUPILS OF MISS ALICE BEOUGHNER GAINS HONORS

The commercial students of Miss Alice Beoughner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erving Beoughner of near Laurelville, who teaches at Bremen High School, rated high in the recent state tests given at Lancaster High School.

The Bremen commercial classes ranked first in the number of points and the most first and second places. This is the fourth consecutive year for the school's commercial department to rate this honor.

Pupils of Miss Beoughner who led the competition were Phyllis Schmelzer, Hayzel Poling, Glenn Voris, Jean Bibler and Albert Ballinger.

KENTUCKY MAN TO SERVE TIME IN OHIO PRISON

Ruben Matthews, Frankfort, Ky., indicted by the grand jury on a forgery charge, was sentenced to one to 20 years in Ohio Penitentiary, Wednesday, by Judge Meeker Terwilliger.

Matthews, while working for farmers in the county, forged a check on a Williamsport bank. He was released from Frankfort last January after serving time there for similar charges. Prosecutor George Gerhardt said.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Lewis Says Leader Of OPM
Should Retire In Best Interest Of Defense

BOTTLENECKS CHARGED

Bethlehem Getting Major
Orders, Others Without,
Declares Speaker

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 1 — Removal of William S. Knudsen as chief of the Office of Production Management in the interest of defense speedup was recommended today by John L. Lewis, head of the powerful United Mine Workers.

Lewis called the Detroit industrialist a foe of labor, blamed him in part for the production bottleneck and urged that he be removed or removed from office.

"The defense program is not as perfect as it might be," said the union leader. "Selfish interests have been able to make a profit out of the nation's distress."

Addressing a testimonial dinner tendered Philip Murray, president of C. I. O., Lewis accused Knudsen of "doing his country a dis-service" by maligning labor, and recommended a larger role for labor in government.

"Nearly 45 percent of all National Defense money has been awarded in contracts to a half-dozen groups by business men who are unchecked by labor representation in the different councils of the government," asserted the former C. I. O. leader.

Labor Not Bottleneck

"There are 30,000 plants, ready and able to handle defense work, which failed to get any government contracts. A bottleneck is the program exists and men are saying that labor is the bottleneck. But that is not true."

"The concentration of contracts with too few corporations is the bottleneck. Bethlehem Steel alone has a backlog of three and one-half years of defense orders, while countless idle plant owners are praying for a chance to participate in the program."

"This war, if there is to be a war, can't be won alone by the government or by labor's leaders. But must have the laboring man's help and Mr. Knudsen, now burning up his energy on the platform, is doing his country a disservice and should be restrained or removed."

"Mr. Knudsen is one of the men responsible for these acts. He is saying that labor is responsible for the lack of production when the contrary is true. We say to him that America will never have an adequate defense so long as men of that character try to malign labor which must be counted on to protect America in the future."

Murray was guest of the Pennsylvania Industrial Union Council, composed of C. I. O. unions, which earlier adopted a resolution supporting Harry Bridges, west coast maritime union leader, in his fight against deportation.

DARBY TOWNSHIP SENIOR PLAY TO BE HELD MAY 9

The Darby Township senior class play will be presented Friday, May 9, at 8:15 under the direction of Miss Ruth DeMuth. Tickets have been placed on sale.

The play, "The Whole Town's Talking," includes in the cast Ralph Delay in the role of Chester Binney, about whom the whole town talks; Verlin Hartman, Martha White, Martha Downs, Fannie Hicks, Bennie Conley, Ralph Nance, Helen Conley, Eleanor Countryman, Janice Chaffin, Evelyn Stinchcomb, Bessie Phillips, Zona Nance, Georgia Spangler, Leland Poulson, Betty Jane Wilkey, Mary Branson, Ruth Mouser, Lucille Johnson and Annalee Wardell.

TAX RECEIPTS GO UP

COLUMBUS, May 1 — Continuing to soar over receipts of last year, sales tax collections for the week ended April 19 totaled $1,124,317, or more than $200,000 over the $816,503 collected in the corresponding period of 1940. To date this year, collections total $15,836,669, as against $13,186,924 last year.

LYMAN ROBERTS ESTATE

The estate of Lyman C. Roberts of Amanda is estimated to be worth $25,000, including $33,000 of personal property.

Beautiful Faces, Slim Figures Mark Today's Golden-Voiced Opera Stars

Today's grand opera stars have become the epitome of charm, beauty, youth and grace.

NEW YORK, May 1 — At long last, grand opera impresarios have conceded that a prima donna need not necessarily be plump, portly or "Seven Dwarfish" in appearance in order to possess a gifted voice.

Consequently, when new aspirants are auditioned now, and with talents being fairly equal, the one with beauty, grace and a streamlined figure is apt to triumph over her less fortunate sister.

Times certainly have changed. Remember when you saved up your pin money for weeks and then treated yourself to a $7.50 front-row seat at the Opera House? How you were thrilled by the diva's voice—and disappointed at her appearance? Remember? And remember how you apologized to your friends by saying, "Mime. So-and-so certainly has a wonderful voice, but I'd rather hear her records than see her in person?"

Today all is changed. An opera star has become the epitome of charm, beauty, youth and grace. She must have a voice, true; but more—she is inclined to be streamlined in the modern manner.

Opera Has Beauties

Take vivacious Grace Moore of the golden tresses, for example, or petite Lily Pons. Take glamorous Gladys Swarthout. Take pretty Suzanne Sten, or beautiful Jarmila Novotna, newest stars of the Chicago Opera company; or Eleanor Steber, newest sensation of the Metropolitan opera. Take any of the opera stars of 1940, and what do you find?

We find they all have faces and figures that grace the gilded circle. They also have beauty, a beauty that cannot be surpassed even by the stars of cinema land. Indeed, an opera star today is usually a movie star, for they are besieged by Hollywood offers.

How do these charming young ladies maintain their figures? How do they keep so refreshingly beautiful?

The answers are many. They range from dieting, stretching exercises, golf and tennis to riding an Alabama walking horse.

Lamentably, Miss Moore confesses that she can smell a candy shop at least two blocks away. Offstage, she concludes, life isn't living if one can't indulge in the luxury of a five-cent candy bar, so she goes on a sweets spree. Ten added pounds to her 120 make her look hefty. With gestures she points out that "It all goes in the wrong places."

Eat Doesn't Fit

"And," she adds, "how can one play the part of the sickly and dying 'Mimi' when one feels as though there's a bag of bricks hanging from all over you?"

So a diet becomes necessary.

O.K....
the pause
that refreshes

and it's skimmed milk and baked potatoes... for two days each week until the infamous poundage disappears.

Miss Moore is fond of outdoor sports; she is an expert golfer and is a member of the hole-in-one club. Tennis is another of her favorite pastimes. Moreover, she rides expertly and swims well.

Incidentally, another newcomer in this category is pretty and midish 26-year-old Rose Stevens. Miss Stevens claims she doesn't indulge in winter sports and while she likes to swim and play tennis, she finds time for neither. Her exercise, she said, comes from tossing around in taxicabs en route from her apartment to the Chicago Opera company.

Glamorous Gladys Swarthout gives all the credit for her svelte, lithe figure to her singer-husband and manager, Frank Chapman.

Chapman, a noted baritone in his own right, was a football star in college. He now applies all the technique that makes for moulding a sturdy football hero in training his beautiful heroine.

"Look at her," he proudly boasts. "Isn't she the picture of health?"

Likes Stars

Miss Swarthout believes in plenty of outdoor exercise and plenty of wholesome foods. Big juicy steaks are her favorite.

However, she warns, "Healthy foods will give your body the needed energy, but be sure and burn it up with exercise and activity. Keep on the go. Enjoy your sports; don't just apply a dull routine of motion. Put zest and vigor into them."

She spends an hour daily fencing with her husband. This gives her agility and grace. She enjoys swimming, horseback riding and walking, but briskly, taking deep breaths.

Indeed, she needs the energy and vitality of a youthful athlete. Besides a busy operatic season she gives as many as 50 concerts during intervals between her opera, radio and picture work. Now that's quite a program for a little five-foot three and one-half-inch girl, who weighs 119 at the moment, two pounds less than her weight a year ago.

The newest star on the American operatic horizon is Miss Novotna, who is appearing this season both with the Metropolitan and with the Chicago Opera companies.

A Czechoslovakian operatic star, considered one of the most beautiful women in the music world, is the Baroness Daubek, known to opera fans as the sensational soprano Jarmila Novotna. Her exquisitely controlled, well-rounded voice is extolled by critics both here and abroad.

She is noted for her extraordinary acting ability, to which she gives all credit for her numerous appearances under the celebrated Max Reinhardt in his notable European productions. She made her New York debut just six months ago at the Metropolitan on the recommendation of none other than Arturo Toscanini.

Worked In Radio

Blonde, pretty Helen Jepson was signed to appear with the Metropolitan, the first woman to get an engagement with the company as the direct result of radio work. Miss Jepson attributes her slender figure to her vacation sports of fishing and surf-casting, to the spray and smell of salt air.

At home she is busy cooking and looking after her seven-year-old daughter, Sallie Patricia.

Lily Pons is an exception to the rule. She has a special diet prescribed to have her gain weight! "Opera roles are so exhausting," she will tell you as she struggles with a cute French accent.

"How much do you weigh, Miss Pons?" the writer asked.

"One hundred and four pounds," she smiled sweetly. "And how tall are you?"

"Five feet, exactly."

"Doesn't that make you the smallest prima donna in the world, that is... in size, I mean?"

"Well, let me see now," she replied.

"Well, let me see now," she replied.

pled as she placed two fingers under her dimpled chin and wrinkled her brow. "Really, I can't recall ever singing with any one smaller than I."

"Do you exercise or diet to keep your figure?"

She thought for a moment, her eyes widened as she answered, happily, "Yes and no."

Exercises To Add

Panouche, her favorite sky terrier had jumped to her side and she patted him lightly, then she continued, "I exercise and diet to put on weight. I need every ounce of energy I have and the thought of losing one single pound gives me 'the creeps,' as you would say in English."

Miss Pons explained that a few years back she only weighed 100 pounds. The extra four pounds she has succeeded in adding to her weight have given her a veritable mine of energy.

Green vegetables, fresh fruits and salads furnish the major part of her menu. She eats "regularly and with gusto." Her twinkling eyes directed emphasis to the "gusto."

She does no strenuous exercising, but she enjoys walking.

"She went, 'Nay, nay,' on wines and cocktails and 'No, no,' on smoking, as it irritates her throat. Living in the midst of caviar tid-bits and champagne has made her 'healthy, wealthy and wise,' she affirms.

PUPILS OF MISS ALICE BEOUGHNER GAINS HONORS

The commercial students of Miss Alice Beoughner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erving Beoughner of near Laureville, who teaches at Bremen High School, rated high in the recent state tests given at Lancaster High School.

The Bremen commercial classes ranked first in the number of points and the most first and second places. This is the fourth consecutive year for the school's commercial department to rate this honor.

Pupils of Miss Beoughner who led the competition were Phyllis Schmelzer, Haysel Poling, Glenn Voris, Jean Bibler and Albert Ballinger.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

TENNIS COURTS, PICNIC TABLES LISTED IN PARK

Plan Drawn By Commission; Some Features Will Be Added Each Year

BALL DIAMOND PLANNED

Levee Along Creek To Be Developed With Stoves To Be Installed

Circleville's park commission was ready Thursday to begin work on its lay-out of the Ted Lewis Recreation Center in the city's north-end.

Plans proposed by state NYA headquarters in Columbus have been studied by the commission and possible changes recommended. The plans will be returned to Columbus Thursday and a blueprint made, park officials said.

Plans call for construction of two tennis courts, a swimming pool, a horse shoe and a volleyball court, a shelter house, picnic tables and stoves and a hardball diamond. The commission has pointed out that all improvements are not expected to be made this year, and that the plans are for a long time project with a few features added each year.

The hardball diamond will be placed in the southeast corner of the 14-acre tract, opposite the softball field. The softball diamond is complete, Harry Bartholomew, chairman of the Park Commission said Thursday, and a backstop is now being erected.

The levee along the creek will be developed as a picnic grounds, with tables and stoves erected. About 40 NYA youths, under the supervision of Charles Bosworth, are working on the project.

Held by Italians

ITALIAN reports that Sir Ronald Campbell, British minister to Yugoslavia, above, was picked up by an Italian torpedo boat off the Dalmatian coast as he attempted to make his way to the Greek island of Crete have not been confirmed, but London has asked the United States to make inquiries in Berlin and Rome.

PICKAWAY SCHOOL NEWS

Senior Class News

The members of the Pickaway Township senior class will present their play, "Mama's Baby Boy," in the school auditorium Friday evening, May 2 at 8:15.

The entire action of the play takes place in the living room of Mrs. Shephard McLean's home in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Mrs. McLean, a very attractive widow nearing forty, has her eighteen-year-old son, Shepherd, dress and pose as a youth of fourteen, so that she may pass as a younger woman and marry the widower, Luther Long, whom she believes to be wealthy. In turn, the widower, also trying to appear younger, has his seventeen-year-old daughter, Julie, pose as a girl of thirteen, so that he may wed the widow whom he believes to be rich. Neither the widow nor the widower has a cent, both having lost their money in the stock market. This situation leads to no end of amusing complications.

The members of the cast are as follows: Mrs. Shephard McLean, Ruth Emmelt; Shephard McLean, her son, Junior French; Luther Long, a widower, Neil Leist; Julie Long, his daughter, Evelyn Pierce; Mrs. Blackburn, Alice Wilson; Wilbur Warren, Shephard's young pal, John Anderson; Sylvia Kline, Wilbur's friend, Sara Smith; Mrs. Anglin, Luther's sister, Mildred Ward; Cynthia, her daughter, Marie Adams; Max Moore, Herschel Hinton; and Minnie "Yessum," Roselyn Dreisbach.

Sixth Grade News

Carolyn Wright, Sue Easter, Eileen Martens, Ellen Rhoades, Roy Graves and Bobby Wilson attended the stage production "Alice in Wonderland" at the Clifton Theatre in Circleville on Thursday afternoon.

The Fifth and Sixth Grades listened to the first broadcast of the American School of the Air on Thursday morning. We have listened to these broadcasts from 9:15 to 9:45 each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday throughout the winter. On Monday we heard "Americans at Work," on Tuesday, "Wellsprings of Music," on Wednesday, "New Horizons," and on Thursday, "Tales from Far and Near." These broadcasts will be resumed next October.

The Sixth Grade has had 100 percent attendance this last week, our first for a long time. Eileen Martens, Ellen Rhoades, William Adams and Homer Adams have not been absent this year.

Mr. Drake and Mrs. Strawser visited our room on last Wednesday.

We have an orchestra of our own in the Sixth Grade. Eileen Martens plays the clarinet, Bobby Wilson and Roy Graves trumpets, Mae Wolfe, flute, Carolyn Wright and Helen Riffel, saxophones and Earl Miller, bass drum.

Farewell Party Honors Couple Moving To Iowa

Friends At Party Thursday Eve At Hines Home

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hines and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook were joint hosts at a farewell party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tomlinson, Wednesday, at the Hines home, 153 Walnut Street. Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson, formerly of South Pickaway Street, left Thursday for their new home in Davenport, Ia., where he has been transferred by the Ralston Purina Company.

A profusion of spring flowers decorated the Hines home. Cards were enjoyed during the evening, prizes being awarded Mrs. John Styers, Mrs. Tomlinson, Wilbur Warner and Kirk Cupp.

The group presented a farewell gift of silver to the Tomlinsons. A salad course was served at the card tables at the close of the party.

Those present in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson were Mr. and Mrs. Cupp, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Ralph Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartholomew, Mr. and Mrs. Styers, Mr. and Mrs. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Hines.

Bundles for Britain

An executive board meeting of the Bundles for Britain unit was held Wednesday afternoon at the chapter headquarters, South Court Street, a rummage sale being planned. Mrs. Charles G. Shulze, president, was in the chair and appointed Mrs. Harold Grant as general chairman for the affair which will be in the unit's room May 23 and 24.

Persons willing to donate used furniture, clothing or house furnishings are asked to call headquarters, phone 408, on Wednesdays or Saturdays, or to contact Mrs. Grant or Mrs. George Crites, chairman of the used clothing division.

Mrs. Harry Heffner gave the treasurer's report for April.

A box of hospital garments made by the sewing division of the organization and shipped to New York City April 23 included 24 men's under vests; 12 men's bed jackets; 12 helpers case shirts; nine dozen small masks; eight dozen large masks and 67 surgeon's aprons.

Club Leader

Mrs. Charles Leon Jones of Garden City, New York, has received recognition for her active participation in various organizations of Nassau, her home county. Fashions for Fun

STRAIGHT from fun-loving

Hawaii comes this gay dance dress inspired, believe it or not, by a merry-go-round. Brass rings, mirrors and animals all are used in the decorative scheme—and it all adds up to spell youthful gaiety.

The dress is of white organdie, with hand-painted animals on the buff skirt. The pig is particularly piquant. The bolero is of red canvas trimmed with brass rings, and the fitted canvas midriff is sprinkled with applied bits of mirror.

The dress is one of a series of Hawaiian-styled fashions now being distributed in America, outstanding among which are painted organdies.

Today's Garden-Graph

The clematis is one of the most beautiful of flowering vines. By giving it a little special attention, they will repay in an abundance of blooms. One preference is to have their roots in the shade and their heads in the sun.

Assuring Blooms From Temperamental Clematis

Clematis suffers from drought, therefore, as illustrated, plant the crown or root mass two inches below the soil level. If the location is at all dry, then plant three inches deep. The ideal soil is cool and moist yet well-drained. An ample supply of lime, leafmold and sand should be deeply mixed with the soil before planting.

To keep the vines growing happily, keep the soil rich by an annual mulch of manure each fall. In the spring sprinkle a handful of lime about the soil. The clematis is essentially a plant of calcareous soil.

Vander Meer Twirls Perfect Ball For Seven Rounds, But Home Run Balls Prove Downfall; Casey Is Winner

BROOKLYN, May 1 — Hotter than a blast furnace on an August afternoon, the Brooklyn Dodgers today had three important objectives in mind. First, to extend their nine-game winning streak; second, to pin the world champion Cincinnati Reds' ears back for the fourth straight day and third, to increase their lead over the second-place St. Louis Gas Housers.

After whipping the Redlegs for the third straight time by a 4-3 score, plans were already underway for alterations to accommodate the world series crowd at Ebbets Field come next October. And the way the Dodgers have been going, it wouldn't be a bad bet that old

JACOBS TO SET DATE FOR LOUIS AND CONN BOUT

By Hype Igoe

NEW YORK, May 1 — Mike Jacobs today will announce the date and battle ground for the Joe Louis and Billy Conn fight for the heavyweight championship of the world. It will be a balmy night in June and Mike will disclose the exact night.

This will set at rest all the rumors of the bout being shunted into July or even later in order to crowd in a Louis and Simon fray, which Conn and his manager fear will encroach on the title tilt. Conn and Ray will be on deck today when the announcement is made.

When Billy and his manager, Ray Carlin meet in Mike Jacobs' office at the 20th Century Sporting Club there will come to light the story of several bitter battles of words over the long distance telephone between Mike and Ray.

The tirade emanating from Pittsburgh concerned Ray's objection to Louis "a bum a month" activities crowding up on Billy's title bout with Louis.

Today Ray continued the storm. "I object to the Buddy Bear and Louis bout or a Simon and Louis fight coming in ahead of our championship fight with Billy. That, on the face of it, puts Billy in the 'bum a month' class and I protest absolutely. Let Louis rest through the month of May as Billy will do. Louis will belittle Conn if he doesn't. I won't stand for it. Conn is entitled to every respect as the challenger because he is the only one in the world who can whip Joe Louis."

EASTERN TEAMS MOVE INTO WEST IN ASSOCIATION

COLUMBUS, May 1—The four Western clubs of the American Association will open their home seasons today after a two-day layoff to allow for "welcome home" celebrations and get-acquainted parties.

In today's games, the defending champion Kansas City Blues were scheduled to entertain the second place Indianapolis Indians while the first place Louisville nine was carded for an engagement with the last place Milwaukee Brewers. Other games sent Toledo and St. Paul, both tied for sixth, into battle in the twin city, and Minneapolis and Columbus, deadlocked for fourth, in the battle at the Miller's home stadium.

The league completed its first interseasonal series with the eastern clubs holding a six-game advantage over the western rivals. The easterners won 28 while the western nines won 22 with one game ending in a deadlock. Only one game was postponed.

Louisville paced the eastern teams with 9 wins and 4 defeats followed by Indianapolis with 7 and 5. Columbus had an even split in 12 games while the Kansas City Blues topped the western division teams with seven wins and six losses. Minneapolis split 12 games. St. Paul dropped the odd encounter in 13 tilts and Milwaukee won but three while dropping nine.

RIGNEY TO ESCAPE ARMY DUTY FOR NEXT 30 DAYS

CHICAGO, May 1—John D. Rigney, ace Chicago White Sox pitcher who was expected to be drafted into the army early this month, may not be called for at least another 30 days, it developed today. Although the hurler has been classed as I-A, subject to immediate call, it was revealed his board may not receive a quota of men for May as a result of a reduction in estimates for the month. The June call, however, will be correspondingly heavier.

Pepper Martin, while not enshrined in Baseball's Hall of Fame, nevertheless has won a niche in a museum. A portrait of Martin, former St. Louis Cardinal star and now manager of the Sacramento Red Birds in the Pacific League, hangs in the St. Louis Art Museum. Critics called it great.

FELLER TO TRY TO EXTEND WIN STREAK OF TEAM

CLEVELAND, May 1 — Bob Feller, a pretty good parcel of "slump insurance," worked on the other extreme today, and it was up to him to extend the Cleveland Indians' winning streak as they sought their seventh straight victory against the Philadelphia Athletics in the third and final game of the series at League Park.

Feller, gunning for his fourth win of the season, was scheduled to oppose Jack Knott, Athletics' big right hander.

Taking the second game of the series from the A's yesterday required a story-book finish, heroes of which were Murray Howell, Roy Weatherly and Ken Keltner.

Trailing, 5-3 with two out in the ninth, Howell, pinch-hitting for Eisenstat, drew a walk. Weatherly, who previously had homered, pounded out a long double, and Grimes, running for Howell, scored from first.

Keltner then drove a home run into the bleachers and it was all over.

Eisenstat who went in in the ninth after Bagby and Jungels had preceded him, was credited with the victory. Lester McCrabb was the loser.

HEROES AND GOATS

Heroes: Ken Keltner, Indians, whose ninth inning homer beat Athletics. Pewee Reese, Dodgers, whose ninth inning double beat Reds. Sam Nahem, Cardinals, who held Giants to six hits.

Goats: Johnny Vander Meer, Reds, who blew three run lead in last two innings throwing gopher balls to duck Medwick and Dixie Walker. Ken Chase, Senators, who gave White Sox 10 passes and made two wild pitches. Charley Wagner, Red Sox, who was slaughtered in less than two innings by the Tigers.

Championships are nothing new to Glen Rose, mild-mannered Arkansas University basketball coach. As a student at Arkansas he played with three Razorback title teams in '26, '27 and '28, and, as coach the past campaign, he tutored the team to another Southwestern conference title.

The New York Giants starting lineup was changed in six spots as compared to the one that took the field for the first game of 1940.

JACOBS TO SET DATE FOR LOUIS AND CONN BOUT

By Hype Igoe
NEW YORK, May 1 — Mike Jacobs today will announce the date and battle ground for the Joe Louis and Billy Conn fight for the heavyweight championship of the world. It will be a balmy night in June and Mike will disclose the exact time.

This will set at rest all the rumors of the bout being shunted into July or even later in order to crowd in a Louis and Simon fray, which Conn and his manager fear will encroach on the title tilt. Conn and Ray will be on deck to-day when the announcement is made.

When Billy and his manager, Ray Carlin, met in Mike Jacobs' office at the 20th Century Sporting Club there will come to light the story of several bitter battles of words over the long distance telephone between Mike and Ray. The tirade emanating from Pittsburgh concerned Ray's objection to Louis "a bum a month" activities crowding up on Billy's title bout with Louis.

Today Ray continued the storm. "I object to the Buddy Baer and Louis bout or a Simon and Louis fight coming in ahead of our championship fight with Louis. That, on the face of it, puts Billy in the 'bum a month' class and I protest absolutely. Let Louis rest through the month of May as Billy will do. Louis will belittle Conn if he doesn't. I won't stand for it. Conn is entitled to every respect as the challenger because he is the only one in the world who can whip Joe Louis."

After two dazzling triumphs, Johnny Vander Meer was the victim of a Dodger uprising in the eighth frame just when it appeared that the Dodger win streak would be tossed overboard. Going into the now historic eighth, Vandy was coasting on a comfortable 3-0 lead and appeared headed for the brass ring.

But things happen in a hurry in Brooklyn and Vander Meer was no exception. Dixie Walker parked one into the happy throng, Cookie Lavagetto walked and Ducky Medwick knocked one that was last seen traveling toward the Polo Grounds where Bill Terry was trying to persuade Mayor LaGuardia to take a turn on the mound after the Cardinals had maltreated a couple of his best alleged hurlers.

Owen Reese Hit
After tying the score at 3-all in the eighth, the Brooklyn lads moved into the ninth confident. Mickey Owen blasted a double and Vander Meer left the ball game, being replaced by Fireman Joe Beggs. But Beggs didn't have the apparatus along to extinguish the blaze. He got one hitter but Pee Wee Reese ended the affair with a booming double.

Kirby Higbe started on the hill for the Dodgers, but before it was over Leo Grissom, Mace Brown and Hugh Casey showed their wares to the champions. Casey was credited with the victory. Eight Dodgers were whiffed by Vander Meer before he was rudely-treated in the next to last frame.

The Reds scored in the first when they grouped a pair of walks, a single and a fly and added two more in the sixth on Frank McCormick's third home run in three days. Bill Werber's single, Mike McCormick's double and a double steal on which Werber came home. Joe Vosmik had a pair of hits in three trips to lead the Dodgers while Bill Werber banked out two safeties for the champs.

"Porter's Cap will win. He has taken most everything in sight, is from the stables which produced Seabiscuit, Molland and Kayak II, and burned up the track working out with four pounds more than his derby impost."

"Our Boots is a quiet one, but he's ready under the hand of the season's top jockey, Conn McCreary, to get rowdy and win."

"Little Beans is the horse with a misleading name, for he's big as all outdoors and, with Don Meade handling him, he'll repay those who talk about him as a 'plater' and pay handsomely as victor."

"Market Wise is still in the market, just as he was in gliding over the better knowns to capture the important Wood Memorial."

GREEK BOXER VICTOR
ST. LOUIS, May 1—Anton Christoforidis of Greece, the NBA light heavyweight champion, today held a two-round kayo over rugged Johnny Romero of Mexico. The battling Greek dropped Romero for the count after two minutes and 31 seconds of the second round in their scheduled 10-round non-title bout here last night.

RIVER ROUGE ATHLETE STARS FOR BEE GEES

BOWLING GREEN, May 1 — Eddie Wellner, 145-pound blond speedster from River Rouge, Mich., today stood head and shoulders over every Bowling Green State University track star of the past. Wellner, the 1941 football captain of the Falcons, smashed all former individual scoring records for Bee Gee tracksters yesterday when he entered six events and won all six of them.

As Bowling Green defeated Findlay College in a dual meet, 70 to 60, Wellner won the 100-yard dash in :10.2; the high hurdles in :26.3; the low hurdles in :26.3; tossed the javelin 150 feet one inch; broad-jumped 21 feet 2½ inches and annexed the high jump with a lap of 5 feet 8 inches.

FELLER TO TRY TO EXTEND WIN STREAK OF TEAM

CLEVELAND, May 1 — Bob Feller, a pretty good parcel of "slump insurance," worked on the other extreme today, and it was up to him to extend the Cleveland Indians' winning streak as they sought their seventh straight victory against the Philadelphia Athletics in the third and final game of the series at League Park.

Feller, gunning for his fourth win of the season, was scheduled to oppose Jack Knott, Athletics' big right hander.

Taking the second game of the series from the A's yesterday required a story-book finish, heroes of which were Murray Howell, Roy Weatherly and Ken Keltner.

Trailing, 5-3 with two out in the ninth, Howell, pinch-hitting for Eisenstat, drew a walk. Weatherly, who previously had homered, pounded out a long double, and Grimes, running for Howell, scored from first.

Keltner then drove a home run into the bleachers and it was all over.

Eisenstat who went in in the ninth after Bagby and Jungels had preceded him, was credited with the victory. Lester McCrabb was the loser.

HEROES AND GOATS

Heroes: Ken Keltner, Indians, whose ninth inning homer beat Athletics. Pewee Reese, Dodgers, whose ninth inning double beat Reds. Sam Nahem, Cardinals, who held Giants to six hits.

Goats: Johnny Vander Meer, Reds, who blew three run lead in last two innings, throwing gopher balls to duck Medwick and Dixie Walker. Ken Chase, Senators, who gave White Sox 10 passes and made two wild pitches. Charley Wagner, Red Sox, who was slaughtered in less than two innings by the Tigers.

Championships are nothing new to Glen Rose, mild-mannered Arkansas University basketball coach. As a student at Arkansas he played with three Razorback title teams in '26, '27 and '28, and, as coach the past campaign, he tutored the team to another Southwestern conference title.

It was indicated that the program will take about 10 months when the Land earlier told the U. S. Chamber of Commerce that he had been asked to draft plans to furnish Britain with 200,000 tons of shipping a month.

Tonnage Sources Checked

As potential sources of tonnage, named domestic shipping, intercoastal trade, army and navy auxiliaries, foreign ships tied up in American waters, vessels of the old fleet, new construction, ships now in foreign commerce and small lake and coastal boats.

Congress now has before it an administration bill asking for authority to take over foreign shipping in this nation, which would be embraced by the pool.

The President also said he could not stress "too strongly the urgent necessity of keeping all of the existing shipyards in continuous operation." of increasing shipbuilding labor and training programs and more speed in construction of new yards already authorized.

"I know from long experience of the great capacity of our ship buildings and of the skill of the workers who build the ships," the president said, adding that "I am sure the owners of our ships will gladly cooperate in this essential enterprise."

IMPORTANCE OF MILK IN HUMAN DIET STRESSED

Jack Nisbt, of the Ohio Dairy Products, Columbus, stressed the importance of milk to the human diet in his talk at the Rotary luncheon meeting Thursday noon in the American Hotel.

The speaker pointed to the vitamin, protein and mineral content in milk as a well balanced food and recommended that it be used by adults as well as children. The present demand for strong healthy bodies increases the need for its use, he pointed out.

Russell Palm, of the Pickaway Dairy, was in charge of the program.

PAN-AMERICAN HIGHWAY TO GO TO CANAL ZONE

WASHINGTON, May 1—President Roosevelt today asked Congress for an authorization of $20,000,000 to complete the Pan American highway as far south as the Panama Canal. The road's present terminus is south of Mexico City.

The chief executive transmitted to Congress with a brief message a report from Secretary of State Hull, which urged the need for the highway for national defense purposes.

2,000,000 tons of American merchant shipping to make good his promise of a "bridge of ships" across the Atlantic to keep Britain's life line open.

In addition, he called on the nation to help pay the bill for National Defense and British aid.

Simultaneously it was learned in Washington that if Germany attempts to occupy Portugal, the United States or Great Britain immediately will take over the Azores and Cape Verde Islands.

This revelation was accompanied by indications American warships already are operating on patrol duty in the neighborhood of the Azores.

On the aerial front, German raiders dropped a few bombs on Britain's northeast coast during the night, but London said there were no casualties or damage.

British planes hammered the German naval base of Kiel and also attacked Berlin, Hamburg and Emden.

London announced that several units of the Yugoslavian navy, the 1,164-ton submarine Nebojsa and two torpedo boats, had arrived at a British port.

At Cairo, British authorities hailed evacuation of 80 percent of the B. E. F. from Greece—about 48,000 of the 60,000 men originally sent in—as a military feat comparable to the evacuation from the beaches of Dunkirk.

German Losses Immense

In Australia, Acting Prime Minister A. W. Fadden described German losses in men and war machines during the Greek campaign as "colossal." London newspapers estimated German casualties in Greece at 150,000 men killed or wounded.

ARMY AIR CHIEF HOME AFTER ENGLISH TOUR

NEW YORK, May 1—Maj. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the U. S. Army Air Corps, returned aboard the Yankee Clipper today after a fast but thoroughgoing study of the aerial war over Britain and sped at once to Washington to place his conclusions before the army high command.

General Arnold's stay in England was of two weeks' duration during which he obtained "a very broad view of England's war machine and of the steps taken to build up that war machine."

SUPPLY OF FOOD MAY DECIDE WAR, SOLON DECLARES

DEARBORN, Mich., May 1—Hunger is driving the peoples of German-dominated countries almost to rebellion, Rep. Clifford Davis (D) of Tennessee, member of the House Military Affairs Committee said today and predicted the food power of the United States will be a decided factor in the final outcome of the European conflict.

"Lack of food is taking its toll in many European countries," Rep. Davis told 29 winners of scholastic awards sponsored by the National Farm Youth Foundation.

"Nazi Germany is gradually finding that no nation or nationality can be successfully ruled whose stomachs are empty. We are constantly receiving reports indicating an undercurrent of unrest among the conquered, spurred to almost rebellion due to hunger and starvation."

SOLDIERS MISS DEATH AS RAIL PIERCES AUTO

Clyde Coontz of Ashville, returning to Camp Shelby, Miss., with a party of friends from Columbus, narrowly escaped serious injury or death Monday when the automobile in which all were riding crashed into a steel guard rail that drove through the vehicle from front end to back. The accident happened near Bowling Green, Ky.

With Coontz were Sergeant Howard Raines and Mrs. Raines, Corporal Charles Reese, 25, and Corporal Frank Reese, 22, both of Columbus, and Albert Bailey, 18, of Dayton. The Reese youths are related in South Bloomfield.

Mrs. Raines was driving.

NATIONAL BOARD WORKS TO HALT G. M. SHUTDOWN

WASHINGTON, May 1 — The National Mediation Board today begins its attempt to arbitrate the threatened strike by the CIO in 61 plants of General Motors Corporation in 22 states.

Officials of the CIO's United Automobile Workers Union and of the corporation were summoned to Washington for a conference before the board.

The union, which is demanding higher wages and a closed shop, has agreed to withhold a strike to give the board "reasonable time" to arbitrate the dispute while the company has agreed to make any increased wage clause retroactive to April 28.

A last minute request of the company for postponement of the meeting today was refused but the board promised that no final steps would be taken at the meeting.

FEDERAL JURY DECIDES LEAHY DEATH ACCIDENT

COLUMBUS, May 1—A federal court jury today held in effect that the death of Col. Thomas R. Leahy, Ohio National Guard officer who was fatally wounded by a .22-caliber rifle shot two years ago, was accidental and not suicide.

His widow, Mrs. Bernice M. Leahy, filed suit for $10,000 against the Travelers' Insurance Co., seeking to compel payment on an accident policy in that amount. The company contended that its policy did not cover self-destruction. The jury reported to Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood that it found in favor of the plaintiff.

Eight Pupils Rank High In State Examinations

Duval Youth Scores 188 To Pace Others; Ashville Pupils Dominate

Eight pupils from Pickaway County's eighth-grade classes ranked in the upper one percent of the 32,431 pupils who took the Eighth Year Test, according to a report received Thursday from the State Department of Education. Highest in the county was William George Wright, Duval, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wright. His score was 188, twenty points above the score required to place him in the upper one percent in the state.

Other county pupils who were in the upper one percent of those taking the test were Frederick D. Puckett, Ashville; Richard T. Messick, Ashville; Norma J. Hines, Ashville; Richard S. Hudson, Ashville; Martha E. Alkire, Deercreek; Louella J. Williamson, Ashville; and Jerry Cloud, Ashville.

The eight high pupils will go to the twelfth annual state scholarship awards meetings to be held in Memorial Hall, Columbus, on May 17, at 9:45 a. m. to receive their state awards.

Results of Circleville eighth graders taking the test have not yet been computed.

133,045 TRUCKS, AUTOS PUT OUT IN LAST WEEK

DETROIT, May 1 — With Ford plants reaching capacity production on a six-day working schedule, the automotive industry this week turned out 133,045 cars and trucks — its highest output figure since May, 1937—Automotive News estimated today.

Total 1941 production has passed the 2,000,000 mark with 2,083,241 units assembled to date, the trade journal reported.

The six-day work week was invoked in the Ford plants to make up production delays caused by the recent UAW-CIO strike against the Rouge plant.

SHOWERS MAY FALL IN AREA

Cooler Weather Predicted By Forecasters; Reading Of 83 Recorded

Circleville and Pickaway County's abnormally dry weather may be broken by showers and cooler weather Friday, according to the weatherman.

Temperatures Wednesday climbed to 83 degrees, within three degrees of the all-year high record of 86 set on April 19. Temperatures Tuesday showed the greatest range of any day this year, with the mercury starting a low of 39 and climbing to 82. Low Thursday morning was 47.

Total rainfall for April was far below normal, according to weather officials and farmers report that they fear their wheat crops will be damaged unless it rains. Pastures and meadows also are suffering from the dry weather.

Eight Pupils Rank High In State Examinations

Duval Youth Scores 188 To Pace Others; Ashville Pupils Dominate

Eight pupils from Pickaway County's eighth-grade classes ranked in the upper one percent of the 32,431 pupils who took the Eighth Year Test, according to a report received Thursday from the State Department of Education. Highest in the county was William George Wright, Duval, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wright. His score was 188, twenty points above the score required to place him in the upper one percent in the state.

Other county pupils who were in the upper one percent of those taking the test were Frederick D. Puckett, Ashville; Richard T. Messick, Ashville; Norma J. Hines, Ashville; Richard S. Hudson, Ashville; Martha E. Alkire, Deercreek; Louella J. Williamson, Ashville; and Jerry Cloud, Ashville.

The eight high pupils will go to the twelfth annual state scholarship awards meetings to be held in Memorial Hall, Columbus, on May 17, at 9:45 a. m. to receive their state awards.

Results of Circleville eighth graders taking the test have not yet been computed.

133,045 TRUCKS, AUTOS PUT OUT IN LAST WEEK

DETROIT, May 1 — With Ford plants reaching capacity production on a six-day working schedule, the automotive industry this week turned out 133,045 cars and trucks — its highest output figure since May, 1937—Automotive News estimated today.

Total 1941 production has passed the 2,000,000 mark with 2,083,241 units assembled to date, the trade journal reported.

The six-day work week was invoked in the Ford plants to make up production delays caused by the recent UAW-CIO strike against the Rouge plant.

FALL KILLS COLLEGIAN

COLUMB, May 1 — Douglas Nickell, 20, engineering college freshman from East Cleveland, was killed when he plunged nearly 100 feet from a precipice at Hayden Run Falls, while hunting fireweed for a winner.

SHOWERS MAY FALL IN AREA

Cooler Weather Predicted By Forecasters; Reading Of 83 Recorded

Circleville and Pickaway County's abnormally dry weather may be broken by showers and cooler weather Friday, according to the weatherman.

Temperatures Wednesday climbed to 83 degrees, within three degrees of the all-year high record of 86 set on April 19. Temperatures Tuesday showed the greatest range of any day this year, with the mercury starting a low of 39 and climbing to 82. Low Thursday morning was 47.

Total rainfall for April was far below normal, according to weather officials and farmers report that they fear their wheat crops will be damaged unless it rains. Pastures and meadows also are suffering from the dry weather.
